

Russian Standard Gold named №1 Russian vodka by The Independent

04 Oct 2017

Russian Standard Gold has been awarded number one vodka in a roundup of the 'Best Russian Vodkas' by The Independent, one of the UK's largest and most respected newspapers.

In the review, three of Roust vodka brands featured in the Best Russian Vodka's listing: Kauffman Soft ranked #4 and Green Mark #6. An esteemed panel of journalists made their choice through a blind taste testing.

The Independent recommends to buy Russian Standard Gold because of its 'high quality, soft mouth feel with caramel notes and pepperiness as well as an appealing design, which makes it a great gift'. The article also notes an excellent quality-to-price ratio.

Kauffman Soft won over the editorial team thanks to its 'fruity and floral hints, smooth and a little bit peppery finish as well as an elegant bottle shape'.

Green Mark appealed to for its 'lightly bready notes and minimalist design'.

We are proud that our vodkas continue to win the appreciation of our most sophisticated consumers.

The Independent reaches over 20M readers each month.

